

Mary Wootton

021 140 0053

Mary, an MoE accredited facilitator, works alongside leaders/teachers to identify areas of strength within and across schools, then co-constructs a way forward- 'one size does not fit all!' The mantra underpinning her facilitation: "Believe all people (including children) can" then support where it is required!"

Mary was Lead facilitator; Learning and Change Networks (LCN) (2012-2015), where the overall impact was a 24 percent positive gain towards National Standards among priority learners (MoE, Milestone 5, 2015).

<http://www.education.auckland.ac.nz/en/about/learning-and-change-networks.html> More recently her role has been Programme Director LCN Science (2015-2016) so Mary brings the expertise to support CoL in identifying achievement challenges, collaborative networking and lateral learning among teachers, students, families/whānau and community.

Her support can include Infinity Learning Maps <http://infinitylearn.org/infinity-maps-2/>, a way to engage students, teachers, leaders, family/whānau in what lies underneath identified achievement challenges which brings a different perspective to a network/school strategic plan. The Infinity Maps also support growth in student agency in a future- focused learning environment.

Mary has an extensive background in teaching, schooling improvement, literacy and assessment for learning.

- Lead Facilitator for Assessment and Literacy for the University of Auckland international schooling projects (2010-2013)
- Literacy Programme Director for the NZ Consortium for Professional Learning (2011-2013)
